

Served by the No. 1 News
Organization — The
Associated Press

Hope Star

VOLUME 44—NUMBER 118

Star of Hope, 1899; Pres. 1927.
Consolidated January 18, 1929.

HOPE, ARKANSAS, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3, 1943

(AP)—Means Associated Press
(NEA)—Means Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n

The Weather

Arkansas: Not so cold this afternoon and tonight.

PRICE 5c COPY

Germans Evacuate Rzhev

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor
ALEX. H. WASHBURN

On Raising a Victory Garden
Or How to Get Frost-Bitten

Of interest to patriotic local citizens who have plowed up town lots and planted Victory Gardens is this headline which the Arkansas Gazette published yesterday with a perfectly straight face: "PLANT HARDY VEGETABLES THIS WEEK."

I noted the headline and story at the time because I was thinking about the subject myself.

Don't misunderstand me. The potatoes weren't up yet. As a matter of fact, they weren't quite planted.

But I had thought about telephoning to see whether a certain vacant lot was as yet unclaimed.

If so, I would look about for someone to turn the ground. And then I would buy some seed.

I even had a partner—he was no more anxious to get a hoeing job hung around his neck than I was, but his wife had been insistent.

So, as I say, I was in the Victory Garden business as soon as I got around to using the telephone.

My neighbors were coming along.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

All this bothered my sense of suspended enterprise as I read what the Arkansas Gazette printed yesterday.

Said the Gazette:

"Plant carefully. Do not hurry—and wait until all danger of frost is gone before sowing heat-loving plants."

Yesterday the telephone rang.

Fresh earth showed where the plow had been. I had a lonesome feeling that I was being left behind.

Independent Moslem State Draws Favor of Jinnah*

Analysis of the News by Mackenzie

Editorial Comment
Written Today and Moved by Telegraph or Cable.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
When I came away from my conferences with Mohamed Ali Jinnah, brilliant leader of India's great Moslem minority, it was with the punch — I can't describe it as anything more concrete — that he would be willing to compromise on his program for Pakistan (a wholly independent Moslem state) and thereby perhaps pave the way for a general settlement of the whole Indian political crisis.

I found much encouragement among other observers who know Jinnah well, though they in turn lacked any definite assurance from the powerful weapon and the Moslem leader is too farsighted to abandon life before it has served its purposes of forcing large concessions to safeguard the interest of the Moslems.

I hasten to add that this thought is no reflection on Mr. Jinnah's undoubtedly sincerity. He believes in Pakistan.

One of the most surprising and hopeful signs which Mr. Jinnah left fall was his offer to join with the Hindus "in a government for the duration of the war, for the purpose of supporting the war effort." There was a proviso that the British government and the Hindus must agree to the principle of Pakistan.

On fighting fronts all over the world, whether it be field rations or mess kits full of hot food, American fighting men are being fed the best. These pictures show how our soldiers pitch in on the chow detail with willing hands and happy faces when mess call sounds.

Now that's mighty important. I have already reported that I found a widespread belief in India that the solution of the political crisis would be for the British government arbitrarily to establish a provisional national government and invite all the warring factions to participate in the interests of the Allied war effort.

It is felt that war service would provide the medium to draw the parties together.

Another point which Jinnah made to me was that the provisional government should be set up immediately, in view of the importance of India to the Allied cause.

That agrees exactly with my own observations. It is dangerous to the general war effort to allow this destructive political crisis to drag on in one of the most vital of the Allied bases.

One can see with half an eye that if the Indian factions could work together for the duration of the war, there would be real hopes of their being able to continue that cooperation after the war.

Impartial observers in India can see no other satisfactory solution than a federal government. They maintain that to establish Pakistan and set up wholly separate Hindu and Moslem states would be to preclude Indian unity.

The consensus among such observers is that the Moslem minority could be protected by constitutional safeguards.

Cattle, 2000: calves, 600; supplies light trading active and prices steady to strong; medium and good steers 14.50-15.50; medium and good heifers mixed yearlings 13.25-14.50; choice yearlings 15.50; common and medium cows 10.75-12.50; medium and good sausage bulls 12.00-13.50; good and choice vealers 18.25; medium and choice veal 15.75.

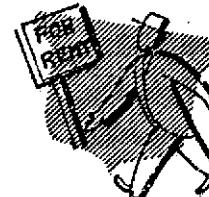

Approximately one-third of the population of Denmark uses bicycles for transportation.

Scientists have estimated that the temperature of the planet Saturn is 238 degrees below zero.

S.S.S.TONIC
helps build STURDY HEALTH

Plumbing Repairs
Harry W. Shiver
PLUMBING
Phone - - - 259

LOOKING FOR NEW QUARTERS?

Use The Classified
... It's Direct

Don't wear yourself to a frazzle trying to find new living quarters . . . your time's too valuable! Look through the HOPE STAR classified section. It's the efficient method of finding a new home.

HOPE STAR

When the Mess Call Sounds---

also drew encouragement with the market's recovery from slipping tendencies shown earlier in the week.

The carriers started slowly, then gathered strength toward the close and increased their gains in many cases to more than a point, some touching new highs for a year or longer. Volume for the full session topped Tuesday's easily at around 1,800,000 shares.

Sports Mirror

By The Associated Press

Today A Year Ago — Col. J. E. Nelson, chief of Minnesota Selective Service organization, asserted that Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox outfielder, sought deferment despite reports to the contrary.

Three Years Ago — Pittsburgh Pirates purchased Deb games from Boston Braves.

Five Years Ago — Glenn Cunningham surpassed all mile records with 4:04.4 clocking in handicap event at Dartmouth. Times by quarters: 58.5, 64.61.7, 60.2.

November usually is the driest month of the year.

COLDS
Relieve misery, as most mothers do. Rub the throat, chest and back with time-tested

VICKS VAPORUB

We Have the Prettiest
Dresses for After Hours

PICK YOURS . . .
HERE TODAY!

Decidedly pretty—excitingly new—definitely the dresses you want most for "after hours."

New Spun Rayon and Linen
Two-Piece Dresses 10.98

Bemberg's 5.98 to 7.98

Chambray and Seersucker 2.98 3.98 5.98

New Spring Coats
Pastel Plaids, Navy and Black,
Priced 14.85 to 39.85

Children's Dresses
Prints and Sheers 1.29 to 2.98

We Give Eagle Stamps

Geo. W. Robison & Co.
Nashville

THE GREMLINS

WELL, IT MEANT SITTING UP TILL MIDNIGHT EVERY NIGHT FOR A WEEK, BUT I FINALLY GOT THE ANNUAL HEADACHE ALL FILLED OUT!

COPY, 1943 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THEY CAN'T DO THIS TO ME!

5-3

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, March 3 — (UPI) — Rails and steels led a fairly steep advance in the stock market today, sizable blocks of lower priced shares swelling volume on the up turn.

Favorable war news from major fronts — the Russian capture of Rzhev, admitted by the Germans. Allied progress in North Africa, and American bombings in the South Pacific — all contributed to improve sentiment. Bullish forces

Social and Personal

Daisy Dorothy Hedrd, Editor
Phone 768 Between 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Social Calendar

Wednesday, March 3rd
Mrs. R. V. Herndon, Jr., Mrs. Roy Anderson, and Mrs. Thompson Evans, Jr. will be hostesses at a luncheon-bride honoring Miss Helen Hesterly, 1 o'clock.

Thursday, March 4th
A meeting of the Pat Cleburne chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Stasner, 8 o'clock.

Friday, March 5th
The Rose Garden club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. C. Andres South Bonner, with Mrs. C. E. Weaver, associate hostess, 3 o'clock.

Mrs. R. L. Broach is Hostess to Wesleyan Guild

Mrs. R. L. Broach, leader of the Wesleyan Guild of the Women's Society of Christian Service, entertained the members of the group at her home Monday evening.

Mrs. H. O. Kyler, president of the W. S. C. S., and Mrs. Robert B. Moore, were guests, and 14 members responded to roll call.

An interesting program was presented by Mrs. Joe Black. She introduced Mrs. Lumarr Cox, who read the Scripture reading. Mrs. Kelley Bryant talked on "Migrant Work."

During the business session presided over by Mrs. Broach, three new members were welcomed into the circle.

The hostess served a delicious desert course carrying out the St. Patrick motif.

W. S. C. S. Circle 4 Hours

Program on Migrants

Circle No. 4 of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, Mrs. C. D. Lauterbach and Mrs. J. P. Byers leaders, met at the home of Mrs. C. V. Nunn with Mrs. E. P. Young and Mrs. C. Cook, associate hostesses.

Mrs. Lauterbach opened the meeting with an appropriate poem. A devotional based on the Lord's Prayer was given by Mrs. A. B. Paton.

In a program on "Uprooted People," Mrs. J. P. Byers discussed industrial migrants. Mrs. Earl O'Neal gave a paper on agricultural that can do more for you than St. Joseph Aspirin. Why pay more? World's largest seller at 10c. Demand St. Joseph Aspirin.

YOU CAN'T BUY ASPIRIN

TAXI SERVICE

Yellow Cab Taxi Co.

Jesse Brown, Owner

Phone 2

NEW SAENGER

Saturday Morning 10 a. m.

SCRAP METAL SHOW

Don Ameche
Joan Bennett

"Confirm or Deny"

Also

Tricky Business

and

"Uncle Joey Goes to Town"

ADMISSION

5 Pounds Scrap Metal . . .
Gather up Your Scrap for This Worthy Cause!

TRY MOROLINE HAIR TONIC - 25¢

New SAENGER Today and Thursday

RIALTO

NOW SHOWING

- 1 -

Leo Carrillo
Andy Devine

— in —

"Timber!"

Ann Sheridan
Jack Oakie
in
"Navy Blues"

Armstrong Is Badly Beaten in Comeback Bout

Los Angeles, March 3—(P)—The fond hopes of Henry Armstrong to regain the lightweight championship have suffered a crushing blow, one that must have convinced the great little bantam that time is running out on him fast.

Willie Joyce, a clever and speedy Negro from Gary, Ind., outboxed Armstrong all the way through 10 rounds last night, piling up a terrific margin in points and landing at least three blows for every one he received.

It was Armstrong's 16th fight in an amazing comeback campaign that has netted him 14 victories and only one other defeat, that one of dubious nature. This beating was so convincing there could have been no doubt at all in the minds of 15,000 spectators who crowded into Olympic auditorium, expecting to see the Los Angeles Negro stop Joyce.

From the second round on through the seventh, little Joyce beat a steady tattoo of left jabs on Armstrong's face, and most of them were jammed into Henry's eyes, which have given him so much trouble because of dangerous scar tissue.

Armstrong and Joyce each came in at 131-1/2 pounds, although artfully culled for the welter limit, 145 pounds. A recent tonsillectomy and scaling down more than seven pounds may have weakened Armstrong and taken the sting from his punches.

After the spirited games prizes were awarded with Mrs. O. C. Sutton receiving the guest high prize and Mrs. Kelly Bryant, the club gift of War Savings Stamps.

The hostess served a delicious salad course with tea.

Enjoying the party with members of the club were: Mrs. J. B. Floyd, Mrs. R. V. Herndon, Jr., Mrs. Wallace Cook, Mrs. Charles Diana Gibson, Mrs. Sid Bundy, Mrs. Sutton, and Mrs. Bill Johnson of Prescott.

Mrs. M. E. Edgington has returned from Little Rock after a weekend visit with her son, Cpl. Cecil Edgington, Mrs. Edgington, and new grandson, Francis Doyan Edgington, who was born Feb. 19 in a Little Rock hospital.

Personal

Little Miss Anne Marie Baggett has been removed to her home from the Dolph Bean clinic in Shreveport, where she underwent a tonsillectomy, friends will be glad to know. She is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Millard W. Baggett.

The small tables placed in the room were covered with green and gold paper clothes and a large birthday cake, attractively decorated, topped with five candles, was placed in the center. Surrounding these were green paper whistles for the favors, and each guest's place was marked with green baskets filled with candy.

After games and songs were enjoyed by the children Mrs. Fred Cook, assisted by Mrs. Lingo, served popcicles and cakes to the following young guests:

Carol Yontz, Kay Hankins, Caroline Spears, Patsy Ross Spears, William Perkins, Bonnie Wilver, John Paul Lingo, Dick Broach, Dale Zinn, Carolyn Lewellen, Judy Beth Arnold, Barbara Ann Griffin, Toni Thompson, Lyman Armstrong Jr. and Chris and Richard Cook.

Coming and Going

Fred Ellis has arrived from Dallas to spend three days with Mrs. Ellis and the W. K. Lemleys.

Mrs. Thomas Boyett of Little Rock is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry Haynes, and Mr. Haynes.

Miss Mary Claude Fletcher will return this week from a vacation trip to Alabama points.

Mrs. W. F. Broening and grandson, Phil Burr, of Little Rock; Mrs. Thompson Evans, Jr., of Wichita Falls, Texas, and Mrs. J. W. O'Brian of Shreveport are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson, having arrived for the Hesterly-McLarty wedding Sunday in

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Sports Columnist

3-Year-Olds Seek $1,000 Oaklawn Purse

New York, March 3—(P)—If Toledo's all-freshman basketball team can knock off Long Island U., tonight it will virtually assure the rockets of a bid to the invitation tournament at the garden. And with Western Kentucky already invited, that might lead up to a ton-gueting duel between coaches Ed Diddle and Burl Fiddler. Of course, one would have to play second fiddle... Bill Cox, new owner of the Phals, and Congressman Ralph Gamble, onetime Princeton athlete, will be just a couple of Badgers measuring the broad jump at the intercollegiate 4-A track meet Saturday. The lightweight champion Sammy Angott has been toughening himself for his comeback against Willie Pep March 19 by working on a concrete mixer. And if Willie is in form, Sammy may think he's been put through the mixer by mistake.

It serves his full complement of stumps."

Service Dept.

Tee Branca is one soldier who is sure of getting his old job back when the war ends. The Fort Douglas, Utah, golf club announced it would get along without a pro until he returns. Sure, what's golf without a tee? Capt. Ken Okey, former Rutgers basketball and football and lacrosse player, is the youngest officer of his rank at the age of 23. His double bars recently at the Beau of Mine, three-year-old bay colt with lots of seat, carried Mrs. Janet Kelly's silks to a two-lengths victory in yesterday's featured $800 Malvern purse. His time for the six furlongs was 1:13 1-5. He paid $3.80 to win. Dr. Rush from the River Divide Farms was second and Mrs. V. Sovinski's Charter Member third.

Beau of Mine, three-year-old bay

colt with lots of seat, carried Mrs. Janet Kelly's silks to a two-lengths victory in yesterday's featured $800 Malvern purse. His time for the six furlongs was 1:13 1-5. He paid $3.80 to win. Dr. Rush from the River Divide Farms was second and Mrs. V. Sovinski's Charter Member third.

Coaches could do little less than make a grand gesture of selecting Andy Phillip at forward, Art Mathis center, and Jack Smiley and Gene Vance, guards. It was hard for them to leave off the fifth member of so brilliant a unit, forward Ken Menke. Menke, however, saw only limited service half of the season because of an injured foot.

In Menke's place went Otto Gramann of Northwestern and 92 against Chicago in their last two contests — all wins.

Coaches could do little less than make a grand gesture of selecting

Andy Phillip at forward, Art Mathis center, and Jack Smiley and Gene Vance, guards. It was hard for them to leave off the fifth member of so brilliant a unit, forward

Ken Menke. Menke, however, saw only limited service half of the season because of an injured foot.

In Menke's place went Otto Gramann of Northwestern and 92 against Chicago in their last two contests — all wins.

Knockout of Mine, three-year-old bay

colt with lots of seat, carried Mrs. Janet Kelly's silks to a two-lengths victory in yesterday's featured $800 Malvern purse. His time for the six furlongs was 1:13 1-5. He paid $3.80 to win. Dr. Rush from the River Divide Farms was second and Mrs. V. Sovinski's Charter Member third.

Knoxville, Tenn., March 3—(P)—"Don't bury Tennessee football until it takes its last breath," Head Coach John Barnhill said a wee bit optimistically today as wartime conditions threatened to engulf the sport.

Barnhill, who took his gridiron to the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans last New Year's Day, has remained hopeful that football would be played next season, but says he wouldn't want to continued "if it interfered with the war effort in the slightest degree."

Athletic Chairman W. Dougherty said he didn't see how Tennessee could possibly have a football team on the field next fall.

Major Bill Britton, Tennessee's outstanding end coach for several years, has entered the armed services along with Assistant Coaches Bob Woodruff and Hobie Hooper.

Col. Bob Neyland, former coach who piloted the Tennessee Vols to football fame ten years ago, two years ago, Backfield Coach Hugh Faust resigned to enter business.

There are 45 men undergoing spring football training at Tennessee.

Perhaps half of these are in the Naval or Army reserves and will be gone by September

Basketball Results

By the Associated Press

Temple 60; Ursinus 25.

Manhattan 55; Rutgers 41.

Notre Dame 69; Wabash 42.

Kansas 47; Missouri 44 (Over time).

Southwestern (Kan.) 63; Fort Hayes 52.

Rockhurst 30; St. Benedict's (Kan.) 28.

Westminster (Mo.) 43; Missouri Valley 36 (Overtime).

Hastings 41; Nebraska Wesleyan 27.

Doane 42; Midland 39.

Washington (St. Louis) 35; St. Louis 34.

Cornell (Ia.) 54; Cee 53.

Bueno Vista 70; Western Union 52.

Drake 51; Grinnell 33.

Phillips Oilers 47; Olathe available Sta. 37.

It is not against the law to burn a

United States flag when it is burned in private.

Washington

By JACK STINNETT

Wide World Features Writer

Washington — Probably nothing will ever come of it, but there's a lot of conversation going around about the possible reorganization of Congress to eliminate some of its more obvious defects.

Probably the springboard for much of the talk is the recently published book, "This Is Congress," by Roland Young. Mr. Young was for some years secretary of the State Committee on Foreign Relations. He knows his Congress, doesn't do any of the臭气 about it, and makes some suggestions for internal overhauling.

However, George Galloway, an other student of the Congressional

Hope Star

Star of Hope, 1899; Press 1927, Consolidated January 18, 1929. Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc., 101 Main Street, 212-214 South Walnut Street, Hope, Arkansas.

C. E. PALMER, President
A. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

Entered as second class matter at the Post Office at Hope, Arkansas, under the Act of March 3, 1897.

(AP)—Means Associated Press
(NEA)—Means Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per week 15¢; Honolulu, Nevada, Howard, Miller and Abilene counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $6.50.

National Advertising Representative—
Arkansas Dallas, Inc., Memphis, Tenn.;
Sterick Building; Chicago, 400 North Michigan Avenue; New York, 120 Broadway; Detroit, Mich., 2842 W. Grand Blvd.; Oklahoma City, 414 Terminal Bldg.; New Orleans, 722 Union St.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charges will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions or memorials, concerning the departed. Commercial newspapers hold their policy in the news column, and those in the obituary from other sources, making memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility for the safe keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

Classified

Ads must be in office day before publication.

All Want Ads cash in advance. Not taken over the phone.

One time—2c word, minimum 30¢; Six times—5c word, minimum 75¢; Three times—3½c word, minimum 50¢; One month—18c word, minimum $2.70.

Rates are for continuous insertions only.

"THE MORE YOU TELL, THE QUICKER YOU SELL."

For Sale

LESPEDEZA AND JOHNSON grass hay. Also cottonseed, D P & L. Stonewell 2-B, Rowden 41-A and Cookers long staple, first year from breeder. See T. S. McDavid.

30-tf

16-IN. 24-IN. 48-IN. DRY WOOD oak, hickory, and pine mixed. Also fence posts and rough lumber. The Three D Company, phone 87, Hope. 5-261c

ROSE BUSHES. FLOWERING shrubs. Conifers, evergreens, grapevines, fruit and pecan trees. Hempstead County Nursery, Highway 29, quarter mile south Hope High School. Phone 236. 15-18t

FOR SALE OR TRADE: HORSES and mules, at Garrett's Gin Lot. 16-20tp

ONE GOOD SADDLE HORSE and 17 mules, from 3 to 4 years old. See C. F. Baker on the J. L. Goodbar farm, 6 miles from Hope on Columbus highway. 26-6tp

1936 PONTIAC WITH 5 TIRES. Mrs. F. N. Steed, 132 Oak Street. 2-3tp

APARTMENT SIZE STEWART-Warner Electric Refrigerator, 1001 West Ave. D. 3-3tp

SMALL UPRIGHT PIANO. MONARCH make. Mrs. B. F. Mitchell, 1003 East Division. 3-3tp

For Rent

CLOSE-IN, SOUTH SIDE MODERN furnished duplex. Two bedrooms. Private entrances. Automatic hot water heater. See Tom Carrel. 1-1t

FIVE ROOM HOUSE, GARDEN and truck patches on Rosston Highway, 6 miles from Hope. One-half mile from Centerville store. Leonard Sanders, Route 1, Emmet. 1-6tp

LARGE BEDROOM FOR ONE OR two people. Garage. Kitchen privileges. Mrs. George Sandefur, 320 N. Washington. 2-3tp

THREE UNFURNISHED ROOMS in Sawmill Quarters northeast of Handle mill. $7.50 a month. Water furnished. D. M. Vineyard, the Grit Man. 3-6tp

ONE FIVE-ROOM HOUSE ON S. P. G. road. Lights and gas. In city limits. Mrs. J. E. Schooley, phone 38-F-11. 31-3tch

THREE ROOM FURNISHED apartment. One five-room house on old 87 north of town. Mrs. J. E. Schooley, phone 38-F-11. 3-3tch

OUT OUR WAYWanted

100 COUNTRY CURED HAMS. Highest price paid. Moore's City Market. 2-1t

CHILD'S PLAY PEN. APPLY Hope Star office. Telephone 768.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR men and boy's shoes. Also ladies and children's low-heeled shoes. R. M. Patterson, East Second Street.

3-6tp

Wanted to Rent

THREE OR 4-ROOM FURNISHED apartment, with 2 bedrooms, good reference. Call Hope Star. 22-3tch

Lost

FORD TRUCK TIRE AND Wheel, size 6.50-16. Lost between Nashville and Rosston. If found please notify Carl C. Ross, Nashville, Arkansas. Reward for return. 27-6tp

Notice

BUY YOUR GARDEN SEED early as we now have complete stock of high quality seed. White tag Korean and Kobe lespedeza. Market advancing on seed, and you will save money to buy early. In the market for Whippoorwill and crowder peas, cattle and government loan cotton. E. M. Williams Seed Store, Hope, Arkansas. 13-1mc

SELLING MACHINES, BOUGHT, sold and repaired. One new Singer Vacuum Cleaner and Button-hole attachments for sale. See James E. Allen, 621 South Fulton St., phone 322-J. 16-1mpd

TO INCOME TAX PAYERS. LET us help you with your income Tax Reports. Married persons with Gross income (not net income) of $1200.00 must file tax report even though no tax is due. Single men must file with gross income of $500.00. Paul Simms will be at my office on week-ends. Will be there myself at all times. Bring records of Receipt and Expenditures to my office. We will do the rest. J. W. Strickland. 11-1f

SEND ME YOUR NEW OR REnewal subscriptions for any magazine published. Charles Reyerson. City Hall. 1-1mc

Deaths Last Night

By the Associated Press
Frank C Partridge

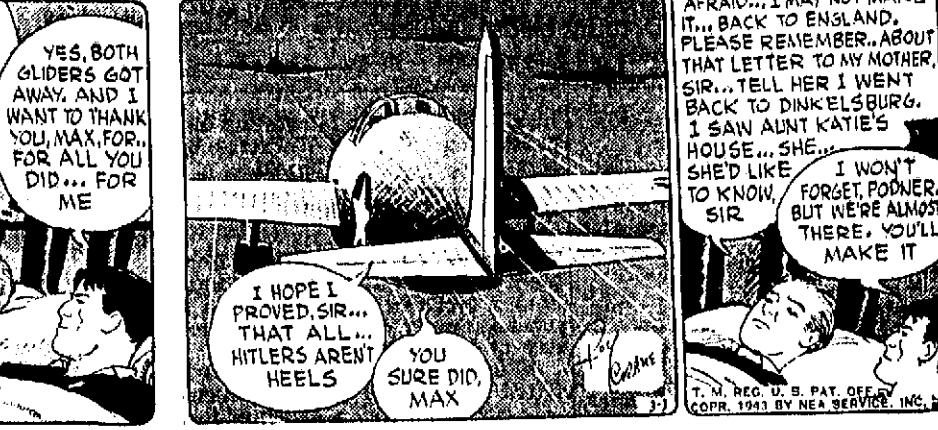

Proctor, Vt. March 3 — (AP) — Frank C Partridge, 81, a former Republican U.S. Senator from Vermont and chairman of the board of directors of the Vermontable company, died last night.

Rudolph A. Gerken
Santa Fe, N. M., March 3 — (AP) — The most Rev. Rudolph A. Gerken, 55, archbishop of Santa Fe Catholic Archdiocese since 1933 and former Bishop of the Amarillo, Texas, Diocese, died last night. He was born in Dyersville, Iowa.

Tyler Brooke
Hollywood, March 3 — (AP) — Tyler Brooke, 52, veteran musical comedy actor and film comedian, died last night. He was a native of New York.

William A. Cole
Concord, N. H., March 3 — (AP) — William A. Cole, 55, general counsel for the Boston & Maine railroad, died last night. He was born in Kennebunk, Maine.

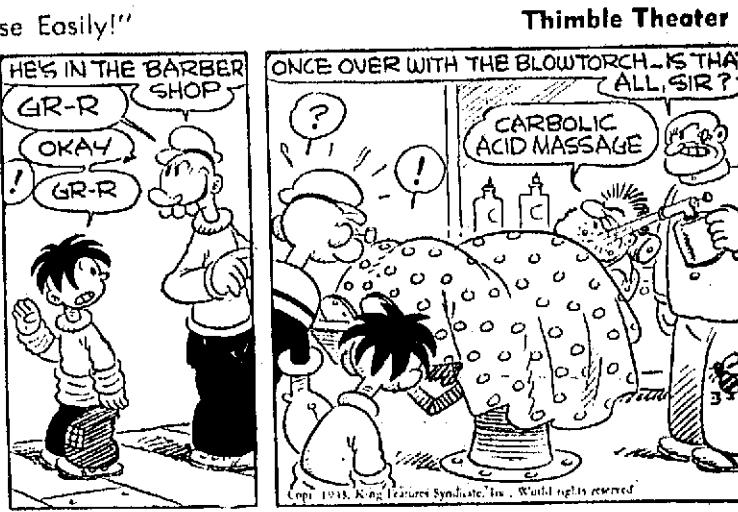

Boots and Her Buddies

SIDE GLANCESBy Galbraith*Wash Tubbs*Homeward Journey

AFRAID I MAY NOT MAKE IT BACK TO ENGLAND.
PLEASE REMEMBER ABOUT THAT LETTER TO MY MOTHER,
SIR. TELL HER I WENT BACK TO DINKELSBURG.
I SAID KATIE'S HOUSE... SHE
SHED LIKE I WANT TO KNOW,
FORGET PODNER, BUT WE'RE ALMOST THERE. YOU'LL MAKE IT

T.M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF. © 1943 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

3-3

Thimble Theater

3-3

Classified

Ads must be in office day before publication.

All Want Ads cash in advance. Not taken over the phone.

One time—2c word, minimum 30¢; Six times—5c word, minimum 75¢; Three times—3½c word, minimum 50¢; One month—18c word, minimum $2.70.

Rates are for continuous insertions only.

"THE MORE YOU TELL, THE QUICKER YOU SELL."

For Sale

LESPEDEZA AND JOHNSON grass hay. Also cottonseed, D P & L. Stonewell 2-B, Rowden 41-A and Cookers long staple, first year from breeder. See T. S. McDavid.

30-tf

16-IN. 24-IN. 48-IN. DRY WOOD oak, hickory, and pine mixed. Also fence posts and rough lumber. The Three D Company, phone 87, Hope. 5-261c

ROSE BUSHES. FLOWERING shrubs. Conifers, evergreens, grapevines, fruit and pecan trees. Hempstead County Nursery, Highway 29, quarter mile south Hope High School. Phone 236. 15-18t

FOR SALE OR TRADE: HORSES and mules, at Garrett's Gin Lot. 16-20tp

ONE GOOD SADDLE HORSE and 17 mules, from 3 to 4 years old. See C. F. Baker on the J. L. Goodbar farm, 6 miles from Hope on Columbus highway. 26-6tp

1936 PONTIAC WITH 5 TIRES. Mrs. F. N. Steed, 132 Oak Street. 2-3tp

APARTMENT SIZE STEWART-Warner Electric Refrigerator, 1001 West Ave. D. 3-3tp

SMALL UPRIGHT PIANO. MONARCH make. Mrs. B. F. Mitchell, 1003 East Division. 3-3tp

For Rent

CLOSE-IN, SOUTH SIDE MODERN furnished duplex. Two bedrooms. Private entrances. Automatic hot water heater. See Tom Carrel. 1-1t

FIVE ROOM HOUSE, GARDEN and truck patches on Rosston Highway, 6 miles from Hope. One-half mile from Centerville store. Leonard Sanders, Route 1, Emmet. 1-6tp

LARGE BEDROOM FOR ONE OR two people. Garage. Kitchen privileges. Mrs. George Sandefur, 320 N. Washington. 2-3tp

THREE UNFURNISHED ROOMS in Sawmill Quarters northeast of Handle mill. $7.50 a month. Water furnished. D. M. Vineyard, the Grit Man. 3-6tp

ONE FIVE-ROOM HOUSE ON S. P. G. road. Lights and gas. In city limits. Mrs. J. E. Schooley, phone 38-F-11. 31-3tch

THREE ROOM FURNISHED apartment. One five-room house on old 87 north of town. Mrs. J. E. Schooley, phone 38-F-11. 3-3tch

OUT OUR WAYWanted

100 COUNTRY CURED HAMS. Highest price paid. Moore's City Market. 2-1t

CHILD'S PLAY PEN. APPLY Hope Star office. Telephone 768.

HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR men and boy's shoes. Also ladies and children's low-heeled shoes. R. M. Patterson, East Second Street.

3-6tp

Wanted to Rent

THREE OR 4-ROOM FURNISHED apartment, with 2 bedrooms, good reference. Call Hope Star. 22-3tch

Lost

FORD TRUCK TIRE AND Wheel, size 6.50-16. Lost between Nashville and Rosston. If found please notify Carl C. Ross, Nashville, Arkansas. Reward for return. 27-6tp

Notice

BUY YOUR GARDEN SEED early as we now have complete stock of high quality seed. White tag Korean and Kobe lespedeza. Market advancing on seed, and you will save money to buy early. In the market for Whippoorwill and crowder peas, cattle and government loan cotton. E. M. Williams Seed Store, Hope, Arkansas. 13-1mc

SELLING MACHINES, BOUGHT, sold and repaired. One new Singer Vacuum Cleaner and Button-hole attachments for sale. See James E. Allen, 621 South Fulton St., phone 322-J. 16-1mpd

TO INCOME TAX PAYERS. LET us help you with your income Tax Reports. Married persons with Gross income (not net income) of $1200.00 must file tax report even though no tax is due. Single men must file with gross income of $500.00. Paul Simms will be at my office on week-ends. Will be there myself at all times. Bring records of Receipt and Expenditures to my office. We will do the rest. J. W. Strickland. 11-1f

SEND ME YOUR NEW OR REnewal subscriptions for any magazine published. Charles Reyerson. City Hall. 1-1mc

Deaths Last Night

By the Associated Press
Frank C Partridge

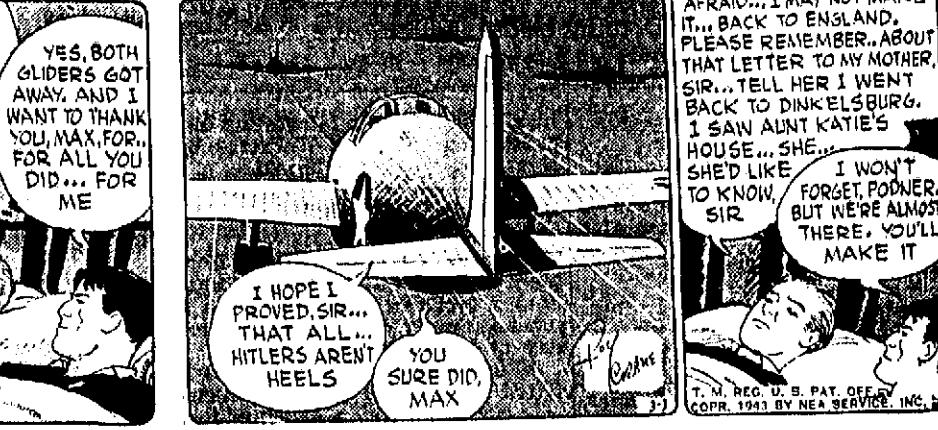

Proctor, Vt. March 3 — (AP) — Frank C Partridge, 81, a former Republican U.S. Senator from Vermont and chairman of the board of directors of the Vermontable company, died last night.

Rudolph A. Gerken
Santa Fe, N. M., March 3 — (AP) — The most Rev. Rudolph A. Gerken, 55, archbishop of Santa Fe Catholic Archdiocese since 1933 and former Bishop of the Amarillo, Texas, Diocese, died last night. He was born in Dyersville, Iowa.

Tyler Brooke
Hollywood, March 3 — (AP) — Tyler Brooke, 52, veteran musical comedy actor and film comedian, died last night. He was a native of New York.

William A. Cole
Concord, N. H., March 3 — (AP) — William A. Cole, 55, general counsel for the Boston & Maine railroad, died last night. He was born in Kennebunk, Maine.

Boots and Her Buddies

Wash Tubbs*Homeward Journey

AFRAID I MAY NOT MAKE IT BACK TO ENGLAND.
PLEASE REMEMBER ABOUT THAT LETTER TO MY MOTHER,
SIR. TELL HER I WENT BACK TO DINKELSBURG.
I SAID KATIE'S HOUSE... SHE
SHED LIKE I WANT TO KNOW,
FORGET PODNER, BUT WE'RE ALMOST THERE. YOU'LL MAKE IT

T.M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF. © 1943 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

Come to Hot Springs National Park For the Best of Entertainment!

Vacation In This Year 'Round Health and Pleasure Resort--It's Near Your Home

Take Care of Your Health for Victory's Sake; Rest, Relax, and Recuperate in Hot Springs

Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas . . . at the eastern gateway to the Beautiful Ouachitas . . . the Health Capital of the Nation. This is your ultimate destination for rejuvenation and relaxation. Over 300,000 people come here annually to restore their well-being through use of the famous hot waters and the mineralized cold waters as well. Ideally located in the country's interior, away from coastal areas. You who live close are fortunate to have so famous a resort in which to spend week-ends.

35 GOOD REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD VACATION IN HOT SPRINGS

- United States National Park
- Whittington Park
- Hard-Surfaced Highways in all Directions
- On Broadway of America—Trans-continental Highway
- Efficient City Government
- A Live Chamber of Commerce
- KTHS—Affiliated with National Broadcasting Company. KWFC—Affiliated with Mutual Broadcasting Company
- Missouri Pacific and Rock Island R. R. Systems
- Two Progressive Newspapers
- First Class Electric Light and Power Service
- Excellent Hotels and Restaurants
- Modern Bus Service
- High Class Sanatoriums
- Ouachita River
- Beautiful Lake Catherine—80 Miles of Shore Line
- Lake Hamilton—240 Miles of Shore-line

MAYOR McLAUGHLIN'S INVITATION:

"If there ever was a time when War Workers and members of the armed forces of the United States needed a place for complete relaxation, that time is now.

"For this reason, we the people of Hot Springs feel that the City of Hot Springs and the Hot Springs National Park take on more and more importance as this global war goes on. We've strained a point to carry on as usual here—even to reverting to horse-drawn transportation during the racing season.

"We're renewing our invitation to you to come here where we've prepared morale-building entertainment and health-restoring activities (with the help of nature's hot thermal water) for you.

"We're offering you our healing waters—the warm sunshine on the banks of beautiful Lakes Catherine and Hamilton—fishing—golfing—mountain climbing—and horse racing by the world's most famous thoroughbreds.

"And economical, too, for you can live here as cheaply as at home.

"To those who've been here before, we wish to extend to you an invitation to return; and to those who've never visited our beautiful city in the Ozarks, we want to tell you that our latch string hangs on the outside. Remember, we'll all be glad to see you, and will tell you so when you get here."

- Oaklawn Track
- Good Churches
- Good Schools
- World Famous Hot Waters
- Army and Navy General Hospital
- Natural Gas Service — Atmosphere Free of Soot
- Good Climate
- Internationally Famous Bath House Row
- Mountain Valley Springs
- Ozark Lithia Springs
- Potash Sulphur Springs
- Fountain Lake
- Great National Forest Reserve at Our Western Door
- Boating, Hunting, Fishing and Outdoor Bathing Advantages
- Four Golf Courses
- Beautiful Ouachita Mountains
- Chamber of Commerce Airport
- Five Interurban Bus Systems
- Beautiful Belvedere

For Further Information Write or Wire

Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce

This Advertisement Sponsored by the Following Hot Springs Boosters:

Arlington Hotel	Chamber of Commerce	Majestic Hotel	Belvedere Cafe
City of Hot Springs	Oaklawn Jockey Club	Southern Grill	Phillips Drive-In Cafe

Arkansan Is Member of Bomber Crew

By Tom Yarbrough

At an Allied base in New Guinea, March 2—(Delayed)—(P)—There was whooping and back-slapping among the bomber crewmen at this station tonight following their return from the smashing attack which broke up a major Japanese convoy headed for the Japanese base at Lae.

Narrow escapes were plentiful but all but one of the bombers returned and it was believed that one might have landed safely in an area where communication with the base would be difficult.

The narrowest squeak of all was reported for the plane piloted by First Lieutenant James G. Diefenderfer, of Logan, W. Va.

Jumped by Zeros at medium altitude he dived his four-motored craft to within a few hundred feet of the water and in pulling out ripped the fabric off both his elevators.

By superior manipulation of the controls he was able to bring the big ship home by using the tiny trim tabs as elevators.

Capt. Raymond E. Holsey of Altus, Okla., pilot a plane set afire by anti-aircraft shells while the crew fought the blaze for 20 minutes and finally put it out.

Major John A. Roberts of Beebe, Ark., who never complains of the weather unless it really is bad, said on his return.

"We'll be lucky if 75 per cent of our planes found the target."

As it turned out, they all did. Roberts was over the target for an hour flying on his instruments the whole time.

Today in Congress

By The Associated Press

In recess until Friday.

Special war investigating committee hears Ickes on pipeline controversy.

Judiciary committee considers McKellar bill to require confirmation of U. S. employees making $4,500 or more.

House

Considers compromise version of new Columbia Basin development bill.

Naval Affairs committee hears Secretary Knox on absenteeism. Rules committee takes up debt and salary limitation bill.

Edgar Prenton Brinegar San Francisco, March 3—(P)—Edgar Prenton Brinegar, 74, one of the founders of the old Chalmers Motor company of Detroit, and in later years a San Francisco financier, died last night.

You Women Who Suffer From HOT FLASHES then CHILLY FEELINGS

If you—like so many women between the ages of 30 and 50—suffer from hot flashes, "heat," dizzy, nervous feelings, distresses of "irregularities," are twice as likely to develop "functional" middle age period in a woman's life—try taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once. It's the best known medicine you can buy that's made especially for women.

Pinkham's Compound is famous to relieve such distress. It's used regularly—it helps build up resistance against infections and diseases. It also is a fine stomachic tonic.

Thousands upon thousands of women—rich and poor alike—have reported benefits. Time and again Lydia Pinkham's Compound has proved some women's happiest days often can be during their "40's." Follow label directions. Worth trying!

Red Cross Clubmobile Hostesses Must Be Skilled Cooks and Mechanics

A Red Cross worker examines the doughnut making machine, part of the equipment of the "clubmobile" for which she is a crew member in the picture at left. At right: Miss Fern Maddox of Oklahoma City, serves doughnuts to a soldier at an airfield "somewhere in England." Center: Members of a Red Cross mobile unit distribute coffee and doughnuts to U. S. soldiers in the British Isles.

London—American girls who do not worry about "dishpan hands," trained in motor mechanics, the clubmobiles visit isolated posts in the British Isles and North Africa, where the girls distribute free doughnuts, coffee, chewing gum, and cigarettes to the men. Often the posts they visit contain a personnel no larger than platoon. Sometimes they are inland air bases, staffed by hundreds of men. Men at these stations rarely get leave and frequently are far from a city or town where there is a Red Cross club.

The girl-crews operate from a central point from which they can cover five or six of the isolated outposts. Rising at 6 a. m., they mix their doughnut batter, start coffee urns, radio, public announcing system, a phonograph and records, and a library of books and magazines.

Staffed entirely by Red Cross girls who are skilled drivers and trained in motor mechanics, the clubmobiles visit isolated posts in the British Isles and North Africa, where the girls distribute free doughnuts, coffee, chewing gum, and cigarettes to the men. Often the posts they visit contain a personnel no larger than platoon. Sometimes they are inland air bases, staffed by hundreds of men. Men at these stations rarely get leave and frequently are far from a city or town where there is a Red Cross club.

The girl-crews operate from a central point from which they can cover five or six of the isolated outposts. Rising at 6 a. m., they mix their doughnut batter, start coffee urns, radio, public announcing system, a phonograph and records, and a library of books and magazines.

Perhaps the greatest thrill American soldiers get from the clubmobiles is that of hearing and seeing an American girl. If she comes from the home state it's something. If she comes from the home town, it's terrific!

Flashes of Life

By The Associated Press

Matrimonial Puzzle

Darlington, S. C.—Miss Mildred Kinsley of the court clerk's office asked the 30-year-old applicant for a marriage license the name of the brideelect and was flabbergasted to get this reply: "Do you have to know that?"

Informed that she did, the man said, "Well, I'll have to go and find out I don't know."

He left hurriedly and returned shortly with the name of his 62-year-old bride-to-be.

The license then was issued.

Knockout

Bedford, Ind.—Whether it was evidence of a glove shortage or simply a matter of self defense wasn't known—but

A Bedford high school girl did her shopping wearing a pair of light-weight boxing gloves.

Backfirewater

Salt Lake City—Twenty gallons of gasoline and not a drop to drink!

A disturbed motorist told rationing officials he'd purchased the gasoline and inadvertently surrendered state liquor rationing tickets, in

Hollywood

By ROBBIN COONS
Wide World Features Writer

Hollywood—Miss Sugar Geise, a night club queen, gave me the lowdown today on Sugar in her element.

"I just love it," she said. "I love night club work and I think it's more fun than pictures."

For two years and nine months, two shows a night, seven nights a week, the indefatigable Sugar has been lending her unrationed enthusiasm and art to the floor show at N.T.G.'s. She leads the cuties on the floor, sings and dances, and serves as a sort of aide-de-gag to the m.c., Mr. Nils T. Granlund himself.

"And I havn't missed a show in all that time—I love it!" she said.

Sugar, a pretty blonde with blue-grey eyes and a customer smile, wasn't in the floor show when I met her today. She was on a movie set, playing the ex-girl friend of John Wayne in "Free For All."

Sugar was wearing a skirt and a plaid blouse, with a ribbon in her hair, this being a wild west beer parlor and she playing a dance hall girl.

Sugar used to dance in pictures

—she's been in show business since she was even—but he didn't get anywhere much until she discovered night club work. Then pictures discovered her, and she works in both. "I don't need much sleep, anyway," she said.

At the night club Sugar, as the boss's aide, watches out for and over the other girl. If one of them is forgetting to keep the old smile on, it's Sugar who maneuvers by her during the number and whispers the reminder. Even a casual night clubber knows that the girls have to smile while they work, even when the smile looks frozen.

Sugar says that's because girls generally look prettier when they smile, and besides they ought to look as if they're having a wonderful time, which they are. Sugar doesn't tumble to any suggestion that at least one girl ought to keep a dead pan expression, just for contrast. She even hinted darkly that with some girls it's a real achievement to project anything else.

Sugar knows about wolves in the house from the innish notes they send, frequently with gifts, but the real hazards in her work are the brunks—the bright boys who decide they'll show off with the show.

"You never know what they're going to do," said Sugar. "Like when one of the girls was sitting on the rail during number, and a fellow reached up from the table to untie her bra. You've got to get there fast. Another time a drunk tickled a girl's ankle and said she couldn't get away, no matter what I ran over and said to let go fast, or I'd have him put out. He let go, fast. And once I was against the rail for a jockey number and a customer reached up and unzipped my panties from behind—and that would be the night I got my undies taken! What a roar!"

She's been in show business since she was even—but he didn't get anywhere much until she discovered night club work. Then pictures discovered her, and she works in both. "I don't need much sleep, anyway," she said.

At the night club Sugar, as the boss's aide, watches out for and over the other girl. If one of them is forgetting to keep the old smile on, it's Sugar who maneuvers by her during the number and whispers the reminder. Even a casual night clubber knows that the girls have to smile while they work, even when the smile looks frozen.

Sugar says that's because girls generally look prettier when they smile, and besides they ought to look as if they're having a wonderful time, which they are. Sugar doesn't tumble to any suggestion that at least one girl ought to keep a dead pan expression, just for contrast. She even hinted darkly that with some girls it's a real achievement to project anything else.

Sugar knows about wolves in the house from the innish notes they send, frequently with gifts, but the real hazards in her work are the brunks—the bright boys who decide they'll show off with the show.

"You never know what they're going to do," said Sugar. "Like when one of the girls was sitting on the rail during number, and a fellow reached up from the table to untie her bra. You've got to get there fast. Another time a drunk tickled a girl's ankle and said she couldn't get away, no matter what I ran over and said to let go fast, or I'd have him put out. He let go, fast. And once I was against the rail for a jockey number and a customer reached up and unzipped my panties from behind—and that would be the night I got my undies taken! What a roar!"

She's been in show business since she was even—but he didn't get anywhere much until she discovered night club work. Then pictures discovered her, and she works in both. "I don't need much sleep, anyway," she said.

At the night club Sugar, as the boss's aide, watches out for and over the other girl. If one of them is forgetting to keep the old smile on, it's Sugar who maneuvers by her during the number and whispers the reminder. Even a casual night clubber knows that the girls have to smile while they work, even when the smile looks frozen.

Sugar says that's because girls generally look prettier when they smile, and besides they ought to look as if they're having a wonderful time, which they are. Sugar doesn't tumble to any suggestion that at least one girl ought to keep a dead pan expression, just for contrast. She even hinted darkly that with some girls it's a real achievement to project anything else.

Sugar knows about wolves in the house from the innish notes they send, frequently with gifts, but the real hazards in her work are the brunks—the bright boys who decide they'll show off with the show.

"You never know what they're going to do," said Sugar. "Like when one of the girls was sitting on the rail during number, and a fellow reached up from the table to untie her bra. You've got to get there fast. Another time a drunk tickled a girl's ankle and said she couldn't get away, no matter what I ran over and said to let go fast, or I'd have him put out. He let go, fast. And once I was against the rail for a jockey number and a customer reached up and unzipped my panties from behind—and that would be the night I got my undies taken! What a roar!"

She's been in show business since she was even—but he didn't get anywhere much until she discovered night club work. Then pictures discovered her, and she works in both. "I don't need much sleep, anyway," she said.

At the night club Sugar, as the boss's aide, watches out for and over the other girl. If one of them is forgetting to keep the old smile on, it's Sugar who maneuvers by her during the number and whispers the reminder. Even a casual night clubber knows that the girls have to smile while they work, even when the smile looks frozen.

Sugar says that's because girls generally look prettier when they smile, and besides they ought to look as if they're having a wonderful time, which they are. Sugar doesn't tumble to any suggestion that at least one girl ought to keep a dead pan expression, just for contrast. She even hinted darkly that with some girls it's a real achievement to project anything else.

Sugar knows about wolves in the house from the innish notes they send, frequently with gifts, but the real hazards in her work are the brunks—the bright boys who decide they'll show off with the show.

"You never know what they're going to do," said Sugar. "Like when one of the girls was sitting on the rail during number, and a fellow reached up from the table to untie her bra. You've got to get there fast. Another time a drunk tickled a girl's ankle and said she couldn't get away, no matter what I ran over and said to let go fast, or I'd have him put out. He let go, fast. And once I was against the rail for a jockey number and a customer reached up and unzipped my panties from behind—and that would be the night I got my undies taken! What a roar!"

She's been in show business since she was even—but he didn't get anywhere much until she discovered night club work. Then pictures discovered her, and she works in both. "I don't need much sleep, anyway," she said.

At the night club Sugar, as the boss's aide, watches out for and over the other girl. If one of them is forgetting to keep the old smile on, it's Sugar who maneuvers by her during the number and whispers the reminder. Even a casual night clubber knows that the girls have to smile while they work, even when the smile looks frozen.

Sugar says that's because girls generally look prettier when they smile, and besides they ought to look as if they're having a wonderful time, which they are. Sugar doesn't tumble to any suggestion that at least one girl ought to keep a dead pan expression, just for contrast. She even hinted darkly that with some girls it's a real achievement to project anything else.

Sugar knows about wolves in the house from the innish notes they send, frequently with gifts, but the real hazards in her work are the brunks—the bright boys who decide they'll show off with the show.

"You never know what they're going to do," said Sugar. "Like when one of the girls was sitting on the rail during number, and a fellow reached up from the table to untie her bra. You've got to get there fast. Another time a drunk tickled a girl's ankle and said she couldn't get away, no matter what I ran over and said to let go fast, or I'd have him put out. He let go, fast. And once I was against the rail for a jockey number and a customer reached up and unzipped my panties from behind—and that would be the night I got my undies taken! What a roar!"

She's been in show business since she was even—but he didn't get anywhere much until she discovered night club work. Then pictures discovered her, and she works in both. "I don't need much sleep, anyway," she said.

At the night club Sugar, as the boss's aide, watches out for and over the other girl. If one of them is forgetting to keep the old smile on, it's Sugar who maneuvers by her during the number and whispers the reminder. Even a casual night clubber knows that the girls have to smile while they work, even when the smile looks frozen.

Sugar says that's because girls generally look prettier when they smile, and besides they ought to look as if they're having a wonderful time, which they are. Sugar doesn't tumble to any suggestion that at least one girl ought to keep a dead pan expression, just for contrast. She even hinted darkly that with some girls it's a real achievement to project anything else.

Sugar knows about wolves in the house from the innish notes they send, frequently with gifts, but the real hazards in her work are the brunks—the bright boys who decide they'll show off with the show.

"You never know what they're going to do," said Sugar. "Like when one of the girls was sitting on the rail during number, and a fellow reached up from the table to untie her bra. You've got to get there fast. Another time a drunk tickled a girl's ankle and said she couldn't get away, no matter what I ran over and said to let go fast, or I'd have him put out. He let go, fast. And once I was against the rail for a jockey number and a customer reached up and unzipped my panties from behind—and that would be the night I got my undies taken! What a roar!"

She's been in show business since she was even—but he didn't get anywhere much until she discovered night club work. Then pictures discovered her, and she works in both. "I don't need much sleep, anyway," she said.

At the night club Sugar, as the boss's aide, watches out for and over the other girl. If one of them is forgetting to keep the old smile on, it's Sugar who maneuvers by her during the number and whispers the reminder. Even a casual night clubber knows that the girls have to smile while they work, even when the smile looks frozen.

Sugar says that's because girls generally look prettier when they smile, and besides they ought to look as if they're having a wonderful time, which they are. Sugar doesn't tumble to any suggestion that at least one girl ought to keep a dead pan expression, just for contrast. She even hinted darkly that with some girls it's a real achievement to project anything else.

Sugar knows about wolves in the house from the innish notes they send, frequently with gifts, but the real hazards in her work are the brunks—the bright boys who decide they'll show off with the show.

"You never know what they're going to do," said Sugar. "Like when one of the girls was sitting on the rail during number, and a fellow reached up from the table to untie her bra. You've got to get there fast. Another time a drunk tickled a girl's ankle and said she couldn't get away, no matter what I ran over and said to let go fast, or I'd have him put out. He let go, fast. And once I was against the rail for a jockey number and a customer reached up and unzipped my panties from behind—and that would be the night I got my undies taken! What a roar!"

She's been in show business since she was even—but he didn't get anywhere much until she discovered night club work. Then pictures discovered her, and she works in both. "I don't need much sleep, anyway," she said.

At the night club Sugar, as the boss's aide, watches out for and over the other girl. If one of them is forgetting to keep the old smile on, it's Sugar who maneuvers by her during the number and whispers the reminder. Even a casual night clubber knows that the girls have to smile while they work, even when the smile looks frozen.

Sugar says that's because girls generally look prettier when they smile, and besides they ought to look as if they're having a wonderful time, which they are. Sugar doesn't tumble to any suggestion that at least one girl ought to keep a dead pan expression, just for contrast. She even hinted darkly that with some girls it's a real achievement to project anything else.

<p